Dear Mom & Pop,

About the only time I get any letters written is while we're waiting for meals and I have about 15 minutes before supper trays come.

I sure wish you could see that big boy. He looks just like Chris did. And you should see proud papa. He is already talking about fishing trips, etc.

Do you suppose you can come see ~~us~~ us before too long? I hope we will have a place in the Amazon housing project before very long and then we will have.

plenty of room. It will probably be 2 or 3 months yet.

Erma wrote that they might move down here next fall and I sure hope they do. All the kids would have so much fun playing together.

I hope they don't have to wait much longer for their baby. It's awfully hard to wait those last few days.
I was certainly glad when I started having pains Sunday night.

I think I'll go home Saturday afternoon. When Chris was born I didn't get up till the 9th day but this time

I was up walking around the room the 3rd day and today I've been walking down to the bathroom and all over. I feel a lot better for it too

Chris is up at Gil + Sibyl's and I think will leave ~~her~~ her up there till Monday morning. That will give us all day Sunday to get settled with the baby.

This will have to be all for now. I don't know when I'll find time to write again but I'll try not to make it too long.

Love,

Evie, Win,

Chris & David
