

Boothby.
159 Italia
Covina, Calif.

Mr. & Mrs. I. J. Boothby
E. O. S. B. Hospital
The Dalles,
Oregon

to have another baby "and we have new nightgowns and shirts for her" and new blankets and Daddy is painting her bed and we have a new mattress, etc, etc, — "as long as anyone would listen and even if they wouldn't. It got to be quite embarrassing.

I think it's so nice to have another boy. He and Slavery will be such pals being so near the same age.

I'm not supposed to sit up too long at a time so this will have to be all for now. I'll write again in a few days.
Love,
Eric

May 13, 1948

Dear Mom & Pop,

I sure wish you could see young Mike. He is quite a boy. Going to be more Hall than Boothby. Today he looked a lot like Al. I am not nursing him so only get to see him once a day and they only show them to the father once. Will be glad to get home with him.

I am so anxious for Chie to see him. She has talked so much about our new baby. Every time I took her down town with me she had to tell everybody we were going